Notes:

1. An “excluded person” may receive relevant distributions from companies resident in Ireland without the deduction of DWT where the excluded person is beneficially entitled to the relevant distributions and where a declaration has been made to the “relevant person”. An “excluded person”, in relation to a relevant distribution, has the meaning assigned to it by Section 172C(2) of the TCA, 1997.

2. A “relevant person” is defined as:

a company resident in Ireland which makes a relevant distribution directly to the person beneficially entitled to the distribution;

a qualifying intermediary, where the relevant distribution has been made indirectly to the person beneficially entitled to the distribution via that qualifying intermediary;

in addition, where relevant distributions are made via an authorised withholding agent, that agent effectively steps into the shoes of the company, and is the “relevant person” in relation to the distributions.

3. An exemption from DWT can only be obtained where a completed declaration has been given to the “relevant person”. If the declarant is dealing directly with the Irish paying company, please forward this completed declaration to that paying company. If the declarant is making this declaration via a qualifying intermediary or an authorised withholding agent, please return the completed declaration to that intermediary or agent.

4. The Revenue Commissioners maintain a list of qualifying intermediaries and authorised withholding agents. If you want to find out whether the intermediary you wish to use in relation to relevant distributions has been authorised by the Revenue Commissioners for the purposes of the Act, please click on the following hyperlink:
