Notes

PAYE, PRSI, and USC due in respect of the taxable value of most benefits-in-kind and other non-cash benefits, provided for employees, are collected through the PAYE system by employers.

Please see the information guide entitled Employers Guide to Benefit in Kind for further information. This guide is available at <http://www.revenue.ie/en/tax/it/leaflets/benefit-in-kind/index.html> or from any Revenue office.

The following are not required to be returned:

- (a) items which have been included in gross pay for PAYE/PRSI/USC purposes or which have been approved by your local Revenue office for payment without deductions,
- (b) reimbursement of vouched business expenditure incurred by employees on behalf of the employer,
- (c) reimbursement of expenses which have been wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred in the performance of the duties of the office or employment,
- (d) expenses in respect of motoring and subsistence which were paid in accordance with the guidelines in Revenue's Explanatory Leaflets IT51 "Employees' Motoring Expenses" and IT54 "Employees' Subsistence Expenses",
- (e) monthly bus or train passes for use on a scheduled licensed passenger transport service or where an employee has acquired a bicycle under the "Cycle to Work scheme- See Employer's Guide to operating Benefit in Kind,
- (f) items returned on Form CT1 in respect of directors provided that all of the details required on the Form P11D were included on the Form CT1,
- (g) a small benefit (value not exceeding €250), where only one such benefit is provided to an employee in any tax year,
- (h) living accommodation for an employee in part of the employer's business premises, if the employee is required to live there for the purpose of carrying out his or her duties properly, and either
 - (1) it has been the common practice for at least ten years before 29 July 1958, in that class of trade to provide employees of his/her class with such accommodation, or
 - (2) it is necessary, in that class of trade, for employees of his or her class to live on such premises.

This exclusion does not apply if the employee is a director of the concern, or of any subsidiary or controlling concern, or of any concern under the same control,

- (i) meals in a canteen in which meals are provided for the employer's staff generally - See Employer's Guide to Benefit in Kind,
- (j) expenses incurred in the provision of any pension, annuity, lump sum, gratuity or similar benefit to be given to the director or employee, or his or her spouse, children or dependents, on his or her retirement or death,
- (k) the private use of company vans where all of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - the van is supplied by the employer to the employee for the purposes of the employee's work and there is an employer requirement to bring the van home after work,
 - apart from travelling to and from home to work all other private use is prohibited, and there is in fact no other private use,
 - the employee spends at least 80% of his/her working time away from the employer's workplace to which they are attached,
- (l) laptops, mobile phones and high speed internet connections provided by the employer where private use is merely incidental to the business use - See Employer's Guide to Benefit in Kind,
- (m) any other benefits that comply with the exempting conditions laid out in the Employer's Guide to Benefit in Kind.

Details of share options and other rights granted, exercised, assigned and released under unapproved share option schemes or other schemes should be returned on Form RSS1, which can be downloaded from www.revenue.ie, from Revenue Forms and Leaflets Service at LoCall 1890 306 706 (within Republic of Ireland) (+353 1 7023050 from outside ROI) or from any Revenue office.
