Please read the explanatory notes below before completing this form

You should complete this form if you wish to apply to have your deposit interest, on funds of which you (or a person you are acting for) are the beneficial owner, paid to you without deduction of DIRT. If a third party (such as a relative) has authority to operate your bank account on your behalf you will still be entitled to the DIRT exemption, provided the beneficial ownership of your account is not affected. You qualify if you fulfil one of these criteria.

If you are, or your spouse or civil partner is, or both of you are, permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from maintaining yourself and are aged 65 or over in 2024

You can claim for an exemption from DIRT if your total income (this is your gross income from all sources such as the State Pension and deposit interest) for the year 2024 does not exceed the following amounts:

•	Single Person, Widowed Person or Surviving Civil Partner	€18,000
•	Married Couple or Civil Partners (combined income)	€36,000

These exemption limits are increased by €575 for each of the first two dependent children and by €830 for each subsequent dependent child. These amounts are liable to change and changes will be posted on our website www.revenue.ie.

If you are permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from maintaining yourself and are under 65 years of age

You can claim for an exemption from DIRT if your (and your spouse's or civil partner's) tax credits for the year exceed the tax that would be chargeable on your (and your spouse's or civil partner's) income for the year. The personal tax credit amounts for 2024 are:

•	Single Person's Tax Credit	€1,875
•	Married Person's or Civil Partner's Tax Credit (joint assessment)	€3,750

Details of all current annual tax credit amounts are also available on our website www.revenue.ie.

If you are a trustee of a special trust for a permanently incapacitated individual or individuals

You, as a trustee, can claim for an exemption from DIRT where:

- the special trust was set up exclusively for the benefit of one or more specified permanently incapacitated individuals
- the funds of the trust were obtained by subscriptions from the general public
- the funds in the account are beneficially owned by the specified permanently incapacitated individual(s).

If you are applying in your capacity as trustee, you are required to provide your Tax Reference Number and the name of the special trust and the name(s) of the beneficiary(ies).

To apply complete the form overleaf and return it to your local Revenue office, the address of which can be found through Contact us on www.revenue.ie (or in the telephone directory).

Complete a separate form for each account you (and your spouse or civil partner) hold.

Joint accounts qualify for the exemption, only where the two account holders are a married couple or civil partners. If your circumstances change and you no longer qualify to have your interest paid without deduction of DIRT you are obliged to notify Revenue immediately.

This is a form authorised by the Revenue Commissioners. It may be subject to inspection by Revenue.
