NOTES

1. Section 182 TCA 1997 requires a company to make a return of any payment which it treats as one which comes within subsection (1) or (2) of Section 176 TCA 1997. The return is required within nine months of the end of the accounting period in which the payment is made or within such other period as is specified by the Inspector.
2. In paragraph (a) of the declaration "Company" means the company making the return except in a case where Section 176(2) TCA1997 applies when it means the company whose shares were acquired. Delete either 'trading' or 'holding', as appropriate.
3. A return need not be made for any accounting period in which no such payment is made.
4. If any of the panels is found to be too small the details requested may be supplied separately.
5. When completed this form should be returned to the company's Revenue Office.
6. Explanatory notes on the completion of Form AOS1 are available on Revenue's website www.revenue.ie or from any Revenue Office.
