

Customs Consultative Committee

26th November 2021

Ray Ryan

- Over 21,000 EORI Registrations in 2021.
- 1,200 registrations in October
- Incoming queries reducing but some hot topics
 - Postponed VAT accounting
 - Returned Goods Relief
 - Preferential Origin
 - Moving goods through NI
 - Online shopping

Key topics in Q4 2021

- Online Shopping
 - Raising awareness at individual level of potential charges
 - Press release issued
- UK changes being introduced in 1.1.22
 - Border Operating Model was updated on 18.11.21
 - New haulier leaflets published
 - Expect the list of Ports with GVMS to be updated shortly
 - Upcoming UK webinar for Irish exports to GB
- Thoughts for 2022 outreach?

Customs Website re-design

Additional incomes

Benefits from employers, social welfare payments, second jobs, employment related shares, overtime.

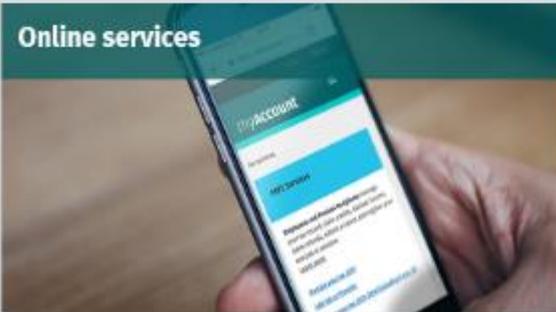

Importing vehicles, duty-free allowances, reliefs and online shopping

Duty-free allowances, reliefs, taxes and duties on importing or registering vehicles, buying from abroad.

Value-Added Tax (VAT)

Rates, registration, paying and reclaiming VAT, property and construction.

Online services

Tax professionals

Customs traders and agents

The re-design will incorporate both the individual and business orientated information under one Customs heading.

Proposed Customs section

Back to homepage

Customs

Information about customs charges, procedures and rules when importing and exporting goods. This includes the UK in a post Brexit scenario.

Popular topics

- Exchange rates
- Classification
- Import, export and postal procedures
- eCustoms notifications

Importing and Exporting	Customs for individuals
Transit and temporary storage	Relief from Customs Duty and Value Added Tax
Processing goods, end-use and warehousing	Temporary Admission of goods
Authorised Economic Operators (AEO)	Simplified Customs Procedures
Customs electronic systems	Comprehensive guarantee and guarantee waivers
Customs rules and reporting – aviation and marine	Origin, quotas and trade agreements
Customs audit, appeals and administrative penalties	Prohibitions and restrictions
Brexit

The new template will specifically call out the 'Individuals' content.

The reliefs information will be held within here, including links for individuals.

The 'Origin' content will now be shown earlier to ensure easier access

Brexit content will be merged into the relevant Customs areas

New section called Customs for individuals – Proposed structure

Home → Customs

Customs for individuals

Information about customs charges when buying goods online, relief from charges, travelling with cash and duty free allowances on goods from outside Ireland.

Buying goods online for personal use

Relief from Customs Duty and VAT on gifts and consignments of low value

Relief from Customs Duty and VAT on transferring residence to the EU

Relief from Customs Duty and VAT on transfer of business to the EU

Customs information for travelling and duty free allowances

Travelling with, or sending cash

Personal relief from Customs Duty and VAT

Importing a vehicle

Customs Website re-design

Feedback?

Suggestions?