What supporting documentation do I need to send with my claim?

The following additional documentation is also required where appropriate when claiming tax paid:

For repayment of tax charged on an employment pension / annuity:

- the original Form P60, which is available from your employer.

For residents of USA only:

A certificate of residence for United States tax purposes (Form 6166) is required for each year claimed. This form is available from The Department Of The Treasury, Internal Revenue Service. Please log onto www.irs.gov to apply for Form 6166.

For residents of Spain only:

In certain circumstances the Spanish Tax Authorities may not agree to stamp the IC2 form. If this occurs a certificate of Residence (Residencia Fiscal en Espana) is required. This form is available from your local Spanish Tax Authorities.

Additional Notes:

If tax has been deducted in the current tax year on your pension / annuity, the pension paying provider will refund this tax to you.

Please note that Government and Local Authority Pensions may be correctly taxable only in Ireland.

If you are in receipt of a pension from the Department of Employment Affairs & Social Protection please contact Dublin City Centre PAYE Section at Tel. No.: +353 1 738 3636 or by registering with the Irish Revenue Commissioners using the online services at www.revenue.ie and you will receive further assistance with this matter.

Exemption Renewals:

The onus is on the claimant to seek continuance of the exemption from Irish tax on their pension/ annuity, after the exemption has expired. In the event that you return to live in Ireland during the time the exemption is in place you should notify this office on your return.

If you do not have an Irish tax reference number (PPSN), please contact:

Client Identity Service, Department of Employment Affairs & Social Protection by:

E-mail: cis@welfare.ie or

Tel. No.: +353 1 704 3281

Time Limits for Making a Claim:

Section 17 of the Finance Act 2003 sets out time limits for the submission of repayment claims to the Irish Revenue, i.e. claims may only be made within 4 years following the end of the calendar year in which the tax was deducted.

How Repayments will be made:

We have the facility to make payments electronically to bank accounts. If you are making a claim to repayment of Irish tax charged on the pension / annuity payments in previous years, please include bank payment details, which should consist of the account holder's name, the IBAN number and BIC code.
