Secure Web Pages

Pages on www.revenue.ie which request personal information, such as the Contact Us, and www.ros.ie are encrypted using a 128 bit EV SSL certificates signed by COMODO, valid until 18th July 2018. You can verify that the page is secure by looking for a padlock icon in your browser, as well as a range of visible signs. Some common examples are shown below.

Internet Explorer 9

Internet Explorer 9 - http://www.revenue.ie

!Internet Explorer 9 - http://www.revenue.ie

Internet Explorer 9 - https://www.revenue.ie

!Internet Explorer 9 - https://www.revenue.ie

Internet Explorer 9 - https://www.ros.ie

!Internet Explorer 9 - https://www.ros.ie

By clicking on the padlock icon the following information will be displayed.

!Website Identification
By clicking on the padlock icon the following information will be displayed.

Office of the Revenue Commissioners

Identity verified

Permissions	Connection

The identity of Office of the Revenue Commissioners at Dublin, Dublin IE has been verified by COMODO Extended Validation Secure Server CA.
Certificate information

Your connection to www.ros.ie is encrypted with 128-bit encryption.

The connection uses TLS 1.2.

The connection is encrypted using RC4_128, with MD5 for message authentication and RSA as the key exchange mechanism.
By clicking on the padlock icon the following information will be displayed.

You are connected to ros.ie

which is run by

Office of the Revenue Commissioners
Dublin
Dublin, IE

Verified by: COMODO CA Limited

The connection to this website is secure.