Notes re Scholarship Exemption

Section 193 Taxes Consolidation Act 1997

Section 193 Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 provides that income arising from a scholarship is exempt from tax where the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the individual in receipt of the scholarship must be in receipt of full-time instruction at an educational establishment;
- (b) the object of the scholarship must be the promotion of the education of the holder rather than the promotion of research through the holder;
- (c) there must be no element of service (directly or indirectly) between the sponsor and the student;
- (d) the award must not arise from an office or employment (directly or indirectly) with the sponsor;
- (e) Scholarship payments from a trust fund or scheme to persons connected to the sponsor cannot exceed 25% of all such trust or scheme payments. A connected person is an employee, a member of the employee's household, a director or a member of the director's household.

The scholarship holder must complete and sign the attached Scholarship Exemption Declaration Form. The completed form should be returned to, and retained by, the appropriate administration office in the college / university.

Exemption from income tax in respect of scholarship income is on a self-assessment basis. This exemption applies to income arising from scholarships in respect of undergraduate and postgraduate courses. It is Revenue's view that the exemption does not apply to income in respect of a fellowship.
