SARP relief explanatory notes

A 'relevant employee' may claim SARP relief provided he or she has satisfied all of the conditions under s825C of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 ('TCA 97').

Associated company - s825C(1) TCA 97

Associated company in relation to a relevant employer, means a company which is the relevant employer's associated company within the meaning of section 432 TCA 97.

Relevant employee – s825C(2A) TCA 97

For the tax years 2015 to 2020, a relevant employee means an individual who arrives in the State, and –

- (a) who for the whole of the 6 months immediately before arrival in the State was a full time employee of a relevant employer and exercised the duties of employment for that relevant employer outside the State,
- (b) who arrives in the State at the request of his or her relevant employer to –
 - (i) perform in the State duties of his or her employment for that employer, or
 - (ii) to take up employment in the State with an associated company of the relevant employer and to perform duties in the State for that company,
- (c) who performs the duties referred to in paragraph (b) for a minimum of 12 consecutive months from the date he or she first performs those duties in the State,
- (d) who was not resident in the State for the 5 years immediately preceding the tax year in which he or she first arrives in the State to perform the duties referred to in paragraph (b), and
- (e) in respect of whom the relevant employer or associated company of the relevant employer certifies the information contained in Form SARP 1A.

Relevant employer – s825C(1) TCA 97

Relevant employer means a company that is incorporated, and tax resident, in a country or jurisdiction with which the State has a double taxation agreement or a tax information exchange agreement.

Relevant income – s825C(1) TCA 97

Relevant income means all income, profits or gains from the employment excluding any bonus, perquisite, benefits in kind, share based remuneration, commission or other similar payment.
