EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations amend the arrangements put in place by the S.I. No. 292 of 2014 Financial Accounts Reporting (United States of America) Regulations 2014.

Under the provisions of the FATCA IGA, Ireland has undertaken to carry out compliance on the implementation and operation of FATCA in the jurisdiction. The legislation specifies that only “authorised officers” may enter the premises of, and make enquiries in relation to, returns and the books and records held by Reporting Financial Institutions. The definition of “authorised officer” is set out in Regulation 2(1) of S.I. No. 292 of 2014.

This Regulation inserts Regulation 12 to provide for the authorisation of an officer by the Revenue Commissioners and inserts Regulation 13 to provide for the inspection of records and provision of information and assistance to an “authorised officer”.
