1 Introduction

- 1.1 Section 227 exempts the non-commercial state-sponsored bodies (NCSBs) listed in Appendix A of this manual (and listed in Schedule 4 TCA 1997) from tax on income arising under Case III, IV or V of Schedule D. The purpose of this manual is to give details of the exemption.

Tax and Duty Manual Part 07-03-03 clarifies the interaction between section 227, which exempts NCSBs from tax on non-trading income and section 207 which exempts charities from tax on certain income.

- 1.2 The list in Appendix A (Schedule 4 TCA 1997) may be amended by Ministerial Order.

2 Income Tax and Corporation Tax Exemption

- 2.1 The NCSBs are exempt in respect of income which would otherwise be chargeable under Case III, IV or V of Schedule D (investment income, rental income, etc.)

(The treatment of interest subject to deposit interest retention is set out in paragraph 3 and in Tax and Duty Manual Part 07-03-03)

- 2.2 The bodies will not, however, be exempt in respect of:

- income which comes within Case I or II of Schedule D, i.e. trading or professional income, or
- income from shares (Franked Investment Income in the case of a company within the charge to corporation tax which elects to have the income brought into charge, or Schedule F income in some other cases).

Such income will continue to be liable to income tax or corporation tax as appropriate.

- 2.3 The exemption is retrospective to the date of incorporation of each individual body or as otherwise specified.

3 Deposit Interest Retention Tax

- 3.1 Unless it has charitable status, an NCSB may not hold a DIRT-free account, even if it pays tax in respect of Case I/II activities. Deposit takers (i.e. banks and other financial institutions) have been advised accordingly.

- 3.2 In the case of a deposit account held by an NCSB that does not have charitable status, any interest paid will be subject to DIRT. The tax retained:
- is a final liability tax;
 - is not repayable in any circumstances; and
 - is not available as a credit against other liabilities of the body.

4 Repayments of Tax

Section 227 provides that there is no entitlement to repayment of any income tax, corporation tax or capital gains tax already paid.

However, where an NCSB is chargeable to tax and pays preliminary tax in excess of the actual liability to tax, the excess preliminary tax may be repaid in the usual way.
