1. Manage your tax 2017

The 'Manage your tax 2017' PAYE service allows employees and pension recipients manage their current year tax credits, standard rate tax bands, USC bands and declare additional incomes ensuring that they pay the right amount of tax during the tax year.

1.1 Joint Assessment Cases

Customers who are jointly assessed with their spouse or civil partner will be able to view the record of their spouse/partner and make any changes to that record.

Customers can move between their records and the record of their spouse/civil partner by clicking on the name on the top left of the screen.

2. Overview Screen

When customers click into this 'Manage your tax 2017' service, they are presented with the overview screen which provides a snapshot of their tax position for the current year.

It is divided into four sections as follows:

Section	Information
Your jobs and pensions	Details of jobs and/or pensions for the current year and whether the job or pension is active or ceased.
Your current credits	Details of the tax credits the customer has claimed and the amount of the credit.
Your additional income	Details of the customer's incomes declared and also any Department of Social Protection (DSP) payments that have been notified to Revenue.
How your tax credits and rate band are currently divided	Details of a customer's tax credits, standard rate cut-off point (i.e. the amount of income the customer can earn at the standard rate of tax, which is currently 20%) for each job or pension. Details of a customer's Universal Social Charge (USC) position including the rate of USC applied (standard, reduced or exempt) and the USC rate bands, which is the amount of income that is liable to the different USC rates, for each job or pension.

Customers can also view their latest tax credit certificate by clicking the 'View my tax credit certificate' button on the top right of the screen.

Customers can update their record by clicking on the relevant button in the different sections or by using the corresponding links on the side navigation bar.

2.1 Your jobs and pensions

All jobs and pensions on record in the current year are listed with a status of active or ceased as appropriate.

On the other hand, a number of credits can be shared between spouses/civil partners such as the Personal tax credit and these are marked as 'Shared' on screen. The amount displayed on screen for shared tax credits relates to the amount of the total credit. The breakdown of how the total tax credits are divided between the spouses/civil partners is displayed in the 'How your tax credits and rate band are currently divided' section.

2.2.2 View, Claim, Edit or Delete Credits

Customers can make changes to their tax credits as follows:

2.4.1 Edit how your tax credits and rate bands are divided

Customers or jointly assessed couples who have more than one active job can amend how their tax credits and rate bands are divided.

Customers who are USC exempt or on the reduced USC rate can amend their USC status if they believe they are not entitled to either the exemption or the reduced rate. Tax Credit Certificates (TCC) issued on foot of any changes to a customer's USC status will issue on a week 1 basis. (Week 1 basis means that each week's pay and tax is calculated independently without reference to any previous week's pay or tax. No tax refunds can be made while on a Week 1 basis).

When customers make changes to their records i.e. by updating either their tax credits or incomes, they will automatically be taken to the 'Divide your credits and rate bands' section if they have more than one active job. For couples who are jointly assessed, this will happen when a change is made to the record of either spouse or civil partner.

Alternatively a customer or jointly assessed couple can amend how their tax credits and rate bands are allocated by clicking on the 'Divide tax credits' link on the navigation bar. Customers and jointly assessed couples who have only one active job will not have this link on the navigation bar.

2.4.2 Divide your tax credits and rate bands

To ensure that customers' tax credits and rate bands are appropriately allocated across different jobs, they will be asked to estimate their gross income for each job and their spouse or civil partner's jobs, where appropriate. This is to ensure that the customer pays the right amount of tax during the year (and no underpayment or overpayment arises).

Where customers are unable to estimate their income, they should click on the 'Unable to Estimate' box.

If customers have made changes to their record and/or to their spouse's or civil partner's record and they are unable to provide an estimate of their income for at least two of their jobs, they will be asked to select their main job i.e. the job with the highest income. The adjustments to their tax credits and/or rate bands will be made against this job.

If a customer provides an estimated income for one job only, the adjustments will be made against that job.

Customers who have made no changes to their records but want to make changes to how their tax credits and rate bands are divided must provide an estimate for at least two of their jobs (if relevant).

A re-allocation of tax credits and rate bands will only take place amongst jobs where an income has been provided.

Customers will have the option of not accepting the allocations done automatically for them. When this happens they will be asked how they want their tax credits and rate bands to be divided.

3. Tax Credit Certificate (TCC)

After a submission has been made, a TCC will issue to the relevant employer(s). A copy of the TCC will be available to view in My Documents (which is also available in myAccount) usually within 2 days of the submission being made.

The Tax Credit Certificate sets out a customer's tax credits and rate band for the current tax year.

The information provided by the customer, in addition to the information held on Revenue's record, will determine the appropriate tax credits and rate band.
