Repayment of Income Tax and/or Universal Social Charge (USC) during unemployment

Who is it for?

If you have paid Income Tax and/or USC in the year, you may be entitled to a repayment if you are:

- ✓ Out of work and intend to resume employment before the end of the year
- ✓ Out of work and don't intend to resume employment before the end of the year
- ✓ Out of work and going abroad

When can you claim?

A claim for an unemployment repayment can be submitted:

- Immediately if emergency tax was applied on your last employment
- Immediately if you are leaving Ireland permanently
- 4 weeks after becoming unemployed if you are not in receipt of any other taxable income
- 8 weeks after becoming unemployed if you are in receipt of a taxable source of income e.g. Jobseeker's Benefit

Is your record correct?

Before you make an unemployment repayment claim, you should ensure you have:

- 1 Declared all Department of Employment Affairs & Social Protection (DEASP) payments you are receiving
- 2 Declared all of your additional non-PAYE income
- 3 Claimed all of the tax credits you are entitled to

To view and make any necessary changes to your record, click Manage your tax 2019. You will need to confirm your record is correct before you can proceed with your claim.

I have checked my record and I confirm that I have declared all DEASP payments I am receiving, declared all of my non-PAYE income for the year and claimed all relevant tax credits.

3.1 Making Changes

The customer is asked if their record is correct, as their records must be correct and up to date when applying for an unemployment repayment. If any updates are required, a customer should select the link to “Manage your tax 20XX”. When this link is selected, a customer will be shown an overview of their current year details and they can make any necessary changes e.g. declare non-PAYE income or claim additional tax credits.
