9.1 Introduction

The KEEP is a focussed share option programme, intended to help SMEs attract and retain talent in a highly competitive labour market. This chapter outlines the tax treatment of share options granted and exercised under the Key Employee Engagement Programme (KEEP).

Legislation in respect of the KEEP was introduced by the Finance Act 2017 and is contained in section 128F of the Taxes Consolidation Act (TCA) 1997.

In accordance with the provisions of section 128 TCA 1997, income tax is generally chargeable on any gain realised by an individual on the exercise of a share option acquired in their capacity as an employee or director.

However, gains realised on the exercise of qualifying KEEP options by employees and directors will not be subject to income tax, the Universal Social Charge (USC) or Pay Related Social Insurance (PRSI), where the requirements of section 128F TCA 1997 are satisfied.

Capital Gains Tax will arise on a subsequent disposal of the shares, at which time the sales proceeds will be available to discharge the tax due.

KEEP is applicable in respect of share options granted during the period 1 January 2018 to 31 December 2023.

9.2 Tax Relief under the KEEP

Any income gain realised on the exercise of a qualifying share option granted on or after 1 January 2018 and before 1 January 2024 is exempt from income tax, USC and PRSI. This gain shall not be reckoned in computing income for the purposes of the Income Tax Acts.

In order to qualify for the KEEP, an option must be exercised within 10 years of grant. Therefore, the latest date on which a KEEP option could potentially be exercised is 31 December 2033, assuming the option was granted on the latest possible date of 31 December 2023.

Share options granted on or after 1 January 2024 will not qualify for this tax exemption.

Prior Revenue approval is not required to operate the KEEP. The qualifying company is however required to make an annual return to Revenue setting out details regarding all options granted, exercised, assigned or released.

In order to qualify for the beneficial tax treatment under section 128F there are a number of conditions to be satisfied by both the employee/director and the company. In addition, specific requirements and limitations apply in respect of the KEEP options.

9.2.1 Overview of the Main Requirements Pertaining to the Employee/Director, the Company and the Options Granted

	Requirements
The employee/director	Must be full time employee/ director (30+ hours per week) of the qualifying company throughout the entirety of the relevant period
	Their employment/office must be capable of lasting at least 12 months from the date the KEEP options are granted
	Can not hold a material interest (15%) in the qualifying company
	Must hold the options for 12 months prior to exercise (limited exceptions)
The qualifying company	Must be - incorporated in the State or in another EEA State and resident in Ireland, or resident in another EEA State and carrying on business in Ireland through a branch or agency

	Must exist wholly or mainly for the purpose of carrying on a “qualifying trade” on a commercial basis with a view to the realisation of profit
	Must be a micro, small or medium-sized enterprise (“SME”) within the meaning of the Annex to Commission Recommendation 2003/361/EC
	Must be an unquoted company none of whose shares, stock or debentures are listed in the official list of a stock exchange or quoted on an unlisted securities market of a stock exchange other than on the Enterprise Securities Market of the Irish Stock Exchange or on any similar or corresponding stock exchange in an EEA country or country with which Ireland has a double taxation agreement;
	Must not be regarded as a company in difficulty for the purposes of EC Commission Guidelines on State Aid
	Must not issue qualifying share options with a market value exceeding €3,000,000
The share options	The share which may be acquired by the exercise of the share option must be new ordinary fully paid up shares in a qualifying company
	The share options must be granted at the market value of the same class of shares at the date of grant
	Must be subject to a written contract of agreement setting out the relevant details
	Must be within the maximum permitted limit in terms of overall awards in the year; in any 3 consecutive years of assessment; and annual emoluments
	Must not be exercisable within 12 months from the date of grant
	Must not be exercisable more than 10 years from the date of grant

9.3 Qualifying Share Option

In order for the KEEP relief to apply, the share options must be considered a qualifying share option.

9.3.1 Qualifying Conditions

In order to be treated as a qualifying share option, all of the conditions below must be satisfied.

- (a) The share which may be acquired by the exercise of the share option are new ordinary fully paid up shares in a qualifying company, which carry no present or future preferential right to dividends or a to a company's assets on its winding up and no present or future preferential right to be redeemed;
- (b) The share option price at the date of grant is not less than the market value of the same class of shares at the date of grant;
- (c) There must be a written contract or agreement in place setting out:
  - 1) the number and description of shares which may be acquired by exercise of subject of the option,
  - 2) the option price, and
  - 3) the period during which the option(s) may be exercised.
- (d) The total market value of all shares in respect of which qualifying share options have been granted by the company to an employee or director must not exceed the lesser of –
  - 1) €100,000 in any one tax year,
  - 2) €250,000 in any 3 consecutive tax years, or
  - 3) 50% of the annual emoluments of the employee or director in the year in which the qualifying share option is granted.
- (e) The share option may be exercised by the qualifying individual in the relevant period;
- (f) The shares in respect of which the options have been granted must be in a qualifying company; and
- (g) The share options cannot be exercised more than 10 years from the date of grant.

9.3.2 Market Value of Shares

The share options must be granted at the market value of the same class of shares at the date of grant.

In order for the KEEP relief to apply, the qualifying share options must be granted for bona fide commercial reasons.

The value of a shareholding in an unquoted company depends on many factors. For example, the value will depend on the business sector/industry, the net assets of the business, the profitability of the business and its future prospects in the marketplace. Revenue expects that in valuing the shares the company should use a valuation method which complies with relevant accounting standards. Revenue will not provide an opinion regarding company specific share valuations.

9.3.3 Requirement to be 'New' Ordinary Shares

The shares which may be acquired by the exercise of the share option must be new ordinary fully paid up shares in a qualifying company.

Where consideration is given to an employee or director for the release of the qualifying share option e.g. an employee receives a cash payment in exchange for issued but unexercised share options, KEEP relief is not available. The consideration is considered an emolument to which deductions under the PAYE system apply. Details of consideration paid should also be reported to Revenue using RSS1.

For administrative purposes, the company may manage the delivery of shares to employees through a nominee trust arrangement whereby scheme shares are held in trust. In some circumstances, an SME may decide to set aside a small portion of shares in the company as a pool of shares to be made available to key employees as they are recruited by the SME. Where an SME subsequently grants an option to acquire shares already in existence (i.e. following buyback from an employee who has ceased their employment with the SME), such shares will not be considered "new" and KEEP relief does not apply.

9.4 Qualifying Individual

9.4.1 Meaning

The individual exercising the qualifying share option must at the date of grant and throughout the entirety of the relevant period be:

- (a) a full time employee/ director of the qualifying company, and
- (b) required to devote substantially the whole of his or her time to the service of the company and spend a minimum of 30 hours per week working for the qualifying company.

The qualifying individual's employment or office must be capable of lasting at least 12 months from the date the option is granted.

Where an option is assigned by an employee to a third party who in turn exercises the option, KEEP relief will not apply. The assignment and subsequent exercise of the option should be dealt with in accordance with Section 128 TCA 1997.

9.4.2 Material Interest

An employee or director will cease to be a qualifying individual if they acquire beneficial ownership of, or the ability to control, directly or indirectly, or through the medium of a connected company or connected companies or by any other indirect means, more than 15% of the ordinary share capital of the qualifying company. This includes shares held in either their own right or together with any connected persons, as defined in section 10 TCA 1997.

The individual must be a qualifying individual throughout the relevant period.

9.4.3 Cessation of Employment or Directorship and Death of Option Holder

Where the company share scheme rules allow for an employee/ director to exercise a qualifying share option following the cessation of their office/ employment; they will continue to be considered a "qualifying individual" for the purposes of KEEP relief provided that such options are exercised within 90 days of the termination of the office/ employment.

Where a qualifying individual dies within 12 months of being granted the options and was therefore unable to exercise the share options being exercised, the personal representative(s) may exercise the qualifying options and avail of KEEP relief once the following conditions are met:

- (i) The options must be exercised within 12 months of the date of the qualifying individual's death;

- (ii) The deceased individual was considered a qualifying individual at the date of grant and during the period to the date of their death; and
- (iii) The company is considered a qualifying company throughout the relevant period.

A more recent version of this manual is available.

9.5 Qualifying Company

In order for a company to be able to grant options over its shares under the KEEP scheme, it must be considered a “qualifying company”. In order to be considered qualifying, the company must meet a number of conditions which are dealt with below.

9.5.1 Incorporation & Residence

The company must be:

- (a) Incorporated in the State or in another EEA State and resident in Ireland; or
- (b) Resident in another EEA State and carrying on business in Ireland through a branch or agency.

9.5.2 Trading Activities

The company must exist wholly or mainly for the purpose of carrying on a “qualifying trade” on a commercial basis with a view to the realisation of profits/ gains which are charged to tax under Case I, of Schedule D.

A “qualifying trade” involves the carrying on of a trade with the exception of the following “excluded activities”:

- (a) adventures or concerns in the nature of trade e.g. companies engaged in once-off or speculative transactions,
- (b) dealing in commodities or futures in shares, securities or other financial assets,
- (c) financial activities (see Note 1),
- (d) professional services companies (see Note 2),
- (e) dealing in or developing land,
- (f) building and construction,
- (g) forestry, and
- (h) operations carried out in the coal industry or in the steel and shipbuilding sectors.

Note 1

'Financial activities' are defined in Section 488 TCA 1997 and include activities in the provision of, financing or refinancing facilities by any means which involves, or has an effect equivalent to, the extension of credit.

With regard to the application of "all matters"<sup>1</sup> relating to the extension of credit, it is not the intention to capture companies predominantly engaged in R&D type activities in this particular sector.

Note 2

'Professional services' are:

- (a) services of a medical, dental, optical, aural or veterinary nature,
- (b) services of an architectural, quantity surveying or surveying nature, and related services,
- (c) services of accountancy, auditing, taxation or finance,
- (d) services of a solicitor or barrister and other legal services, and
- (e) geological services.

9.5.3 Company Status throughout any Relevant Period

For the entirety of any relevant period, the company must be an unquoted company none of whose shares, stock or debentures are listed in the official list of a stock exchange or quoted on an unlisted securities market of a stock exchange other than on the Enterprise Securities Market of the Irish Stock Exchange or on any similar or corresponding stock exchange in an EEA country or country with which Ireland has a double taxation agreement.

Furthermore, for the entirety of any relevant period, the company may not be regarded as a company in difficulty for the purposes of EC Commission Guidelines on State Aid.

<sup>1</sup> "Financial activities" are defined in Section 488 TCA 1997 and mean the provision of, and all matters relating to the provision of, financing or refinancing facilities by any means which involves, or has an effect equivalent to, the extension of credit.

9.5.4 Company Status at the Date of Grant

At the date of grant of the qualifying share option, the company must be a micro, small or medium-sized enterprise (“SME”) within the meaning of the Annex to Commission Recommendation 2003/361/EC.

Furthermore, the total market value of the issued but unexercised qualifying share options of the company must not exceed €3,000,000.

9.5.5 Definition of Micro, Small & Medium-sized Enterprises

In general terms, a company will be considered a micro, small or medium sized enterprise where they employ fewer than 250 employees and their annual turnover/ annual balance sheet does not exceed €50 million and €43 million respectively.

The European Commission have provided detailed guidelines on these criteria for companies who are unsure if they meet the definition. In summary:

- A medium-sized enterprise has less than 250 employees and has an annual turnover not exceeding €50 million or an annual balance sheet total not exceeding €43 million;
- A small enterprise has less than 50 employees and has an annual turnover and/or annual balance sheet total not exceeding €10 million;
- A micro enterprise has less than 10 employees and has an annual turnover and/or annual balance sheet total not exceeding €2 million.

9.5.6 Holding Companies

A holding company can be considered a qualifying company for the purposes of the KEEP relief. In order to qualify, the holding company’s business must consist wholly of the holding of shares in the qualifying company where the shares are directly held and comprised of the entire issued share capital.

9.6 Relevant Period

9.6.1 Definition

Relevant period is defined as “a period of not less than 12 months beginning on the date a qualifying share option is granted to an employee or director of the qualifying company and ending on the date the share option is exercised by the qualifying individual.”

Essentially, the above definition confirms that in order to be considered a qualifying share option, the vesting period must be at least 12 months in length. The period between the date the option was granted and the date that the option is capable of being exercised is known as the vesting period. There are however certain exceptions to this requirement which are set out in 9.6.2.

9.6.2 Relevant period less than 12 months

There are limited circumstances in which share options may be exercised outside of the relevant period i.e. within the 12 month period from the date of grant.

Such circumstances include the case of certain company reorganisations or sales, or on the death of the option holder.

In this regard, a period of less than 12 months shall be deemed to be a relevant period where, following the grant of a share option, during that period—

- (a) a transaction is entered into pursuant to a compromise, arrangement or scheme applicable to or affecting all the ordinary share capital of the qualifying company,
- (b) a transaction takes place that forms part of a general offer made to holders of shares of the same class as the shares acquired by the director or employee or of shares in the same company and made in the first instance on a condition such that if it is satisfied the person making the offer will have control of that company, or
- (c) the qualifying company allows an issued but unexercised qualifying share option to transfer to an individual's estate on their death, where—
  - (i) the qualifying share option is exercised within 12 months of the individual's death,
  - (ii) the deceased was a qualifying individual up to the date of his or her death, and
  - (iii) the company is a qualifying company throughout the relevant period.

9.7 Capital Gains Tax Treatment

9.7.1 General

KEEP provides for an exemption from income tax, USC and PRSI on any gain realised on the exercise of a qualifying share option. The gain will however be subject to Capital Gains Tax on a subsequent disposal of the shares.

The qualifying individual is deemed for CGT purposes to have acquired the shares for a consideration equal to the amount paid for their acquisition, notwithstanding section 547(1)(a) TCA 1997. Therefore, the base cost for CGT purposes is the amount paid at the acquisition date.

9.7.2 Interaction with CGT Entrepreneur's Relief

CGT "Entrepreneur's Relief" may be available for the disposal of shares acquired under the KEEP where the shareholder (the employee or director) satisfies the requirements for CGT Entrepreneurs Relief. Further information on Entrepreneur's Relief is available in Tax and Duty Manual Part 19-06-02b on the Revenue website.

9.8 Illustrative Example of KEEP Relief

The following example compares the income tax and capital gains tax treatment of shares acquired (and disposed) under a standard Unapproved Scheme and the KEEP.

Facts

- On 10 April 2018 an employee is granted an option to acquire 10,000 shares at €1 per share (which is market value of the shares on that date).
- On the 10 April 2021, the market value of the shares is €3 per share and the employee exercises his/ her option to acquire the 10,000 shares at €1 per share. The employee pays €10,000 for 1,000 shares which are valued at €30,000 on that date. The employee has therefore acquired the shares at a discount of €20,000.
- On the 10 April 2024, the market value of the shares has increased to €4 per share and the employee sells their holding of 10,000 shares for €40,000.
- The employee is marginal rate tax payer and has total income of less than €70,044 per annum.
- The employee holds no other shares in the qualifying company.
- It is assumed that there are no changes to tax rates during the years 2018 to 2024.

9.9 Returns of Information

A company will not be regarded as a qualifying company if it fails to comply with certain reporting requirements set out in subsections (7) and (8) of Section 128F TCA 1997.

9.9.1 Annual Reporting

There is an obligation on every qualifying company to file a return with Revenue for any year in which it grants an option to an employee, or any year in which an option is exercised, transferred or released. The return must be filed on or before 31 March in the following year.

Section 128F requires that a qualifying company must provide particulars to Revenue in respect of:

- qualifying share options granted,
- shares allotted and assets transferred in pursuance of such a right, and
- consideration given for the assignment or release in whole or in part of such a right or receives notice of the assignment of such a right.

Self-assessment principles apply to the making of a return. Details of the return required will be issued by Revenue in due course.

9.9.2 EU State Aid Reporting

As the KEEP falls within State Aid provisions, additional reporting and publication requirements may arise. This is covered in subsection (8) of section 128F.

This includes the following:

- name of the company;
- address of the company;
- companies Registration Office (CRO) number for the company;
- the principal economic sector in which the company operates;
- the region in which the company is located;
- the amount of the tax advantage granted and
- the date of exercise of the qualifying share options.

9.10 Ceasing to Qualify for KEEP Relief

If any of the qualifying conditions for KEEP relief cease to apply (subject to the limited exceptions outlined earlier), then any subsequent exercise of the share options will be subject to taxation under section 128 TCA 1997. Thus, the former KEEP options will be treated as normal unapproved share options. Income tax, USC and PRSI is due on any income gain arising on exercise of the share options. An individual is obliged to file an RTSO1 and pay any RTSO due within 30 days of exercise. They will be considered a chargeable person for income tax purposes and will be required to file an annual return of income in line with the self-assessment provisions. The company would also be required to file an RSS1 return by the 31 March following the year in which the exercise occurred.

There may also be Capital Gains Tax considerations when the shares are subsequently disposed of.

Further information on the treatment of unapproved share options is available in Chapter 3 of the Share Schemes Manual.

9.11 Employment and Investment Incentive

Where relief applies under KEEP, section 128F TCA 1997 provides that relief cannot also be claimed under the Employment and Investment Incentive (EII).

9.12 Anti-avoidance

To qualify for relief, the share option must be granted for bona fide commercial reasons, the main purpose of which is to recruit and retain employees. It should not be part of a scheme or arrangement the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of which is the avoidance of tax.

9.13 Revenue Technical Service (RTS)

Generally, Revenue does not provide opinions to taxpayers or practitioners on pre-transaction related issues. However, as the KEEP is a new scheme we appreciate a technical issue may arise that is not covered by this Tax and Duty Manual. Revenue will accept pre-transaction technical queries on a case specific basis until 30 November 2018. However, all of the other requirements outlined in the Tax and Duty Manual for the Revenue Technical Service ( TDM Part 37-00-00a ) must be complied with. Thereafter, where further queries arise, Revenue will assess the need for updated guidance.

9.16 Examples

Example 1

On 1 January 2018, James is granted an option to acquire 5,000 shares at €1 per share. The market value of the shares on that date is €1 per share. The options can be exercised for up to 10 years from the date of grant.

Tax at date of grant

No tax arises on the grant of the KEEP options as they were granted at market value at that date.

Tax at date of exercise of KEEP options

In 2020, when the shares are worth €4 per share, James exercises the option, taking up his full rights, and pays €5,000 to acquire the shares.

Market value of shares (5,000 x €4)	€20,000
Price paid on exercise (5,000 x €1)	€5,000
Income Gain	€15,000
Tax due	Nil

Provided the requirements of section 128F TCA 1997 are satisfied no income tax arises on the gain of €15,000.

Tax on a subsequent sale of the shares

In 2021, James sells all 5,000 shares. The market value of the shares at the date of sale is €5 per share. A capital gain of €20,000 arises and the capital gains tax due is €6,600.

Sales proceeds (5,000 x €5)	€25,000
Less cost (5,000 x €1)	€5,000
Chargeable gain	€20,000
CGT due (at 33%)	€6,600 <sup>5</sup>

Example 2

Aisling is a full time employee with an annual salary of €46,000 in 2018. The maximum value of share options that can be granted to her in 2018 through the KEEP is €23,000. This is equal to 50 per cent of her total annual emoluments for that year.

Example 3

Deirdre is a full time director with an annual salary of €150,000 and director's fees of €60,000 in 2018. The maximum value of share options that can be granted to her under KEEP is €100,000 in the year 2018 (max €100,000 in any tax year).

Example 4

In the tax years 2018 and 2019, Brian was granted KEEP options in respect of new shares valued at €90,000 and €100,000 respectively at the dates of grant. These options remain unexercised in the year 2020. In the year 2020, subject to a cap of 50 per cent of his total annual emoluments for that year, the maximum value of shares options that can be granted to him under KEEP is €60,000 (max €250,000 in any 3 consecutive tax years).

Example 5

Enrique is a non executive director who spends 3 days a month working for the qualifying company. He is not eligible to participate in the KEEP scheme as he is not a full time employee/ non executive director.

---

Example 6

Oliver is a newly appointed executive director who is required to devote substantially the whole of his time to the service of the company and spend a minimum of 30 hours per week working for the qualifying company. His appointment is for a period of two years. He is eligible to participate in the KEEP scheme.

Example 7

Company Y is a qualifying company for KEEP purposes. Mary is an executive director of both Company Y and Company Z who devotes her time equally to the service of each company. As she does not devote substantially the whole of her time to the service of Company Y, she is not eligible to participate in the KEEP scheme.

Example 8

Audrey is a full time director of company Z and owns 10% of the ordinary share capital. On 1 July 2019 she exercises qualifying KEEP options and acquires an additional 6% shareholding in the company. As she did not hold more than a 15% shareholding in Company Z throughout the relevant period (i.e. from the date of grant up to the time of exercise), she is considered a qualifying individual and will avail of the KEEP exemption on any gain realised at exercise of these options.

Audrey will not however be considered a qualifying individual for any subsequent exercises as she now has beneficial ownership of more than 15% of the ordinary share capital of Company Z.

Example 9

Morgan is a full time employee of a qualifying company for KEEP purposes. His wife Caroline is a majority shareholder (has a 50% shareholding) in the company. As Caroline is a connected person, Morgan will not be able to benefit from the tax treatment afforded under the KEEP.

Example 10

Eamon has been granted KEEP options by his employer, company AF. Eamon ceases employment with AF on 1 January 2020. He holds unexercised qualifying share options at this date in respect of shares in AF. On 1 February 2020 he commences a new employment with Company BB.

Provided Eamon exercises his qualifying share options by 30 March 2020, he will be deemed a qualifying individual in respect of the period he is not employed by AF (i.e. between 1 January 2020 and the date of exercise).

Example 11

Company X grants qualifying share options to the value of €2 million to its key employees on 1 January 2018. The options are subject to a three year exercise period. At 1 January 2019, the company wishes to grant additional options to newly recruited key employees.

As the total market value of issued but unexercised qualifying share options of the company cannot exceed €3 million at the date of grant, the maximum value of options that can be granted on 1 January 2019 is €1 million (assuming the market value of the options previously granted has not changed).

Example 12

On 1 January 2018, Stephen by virtue of his employment is granted KEEP share options. On 1 January 2019, when the market value of the shares is €15,000, he exercises his options and acquires newly issued shares for an option price of €12,000. He immediately sells the shares for €15,000.

Calculation of chargeable gain

Disposal proceeds		€15,000
Less costs of acquisition:
Cost of option at grant	NIL
Price of shares at time of acquisition	€12,000
Amount charged to income tax under Section 128F TCA 1997	Nil	€12,000
Chargeable Gain (ignoring annual exemption and FIFO)		€3,000

Example 13

Eoin is granted share options in a qualifying company in February 2018. His employer will report the grant in the Form KEEP1 and submit to Revenue by 31 March 2019.

Throughout the relevant period, all qualifying conditions for KEEP have been satisfied. Eoin exercises his KEEP options on 12 July 2021 and qualifies for KEEP tax relief. His employer will report the exercise in the Form KEEP1 and submit to Revenue by 31 March 2022.

Example 14

Katherine is granted share options in a qualifying company in February 2018. Her employer will report the grant in the Form KEEP1 and submit to Revenue by 31 March 2019.

During the relevant period, Katherine significantly reduces her working hours to a part time basis. As she is no longer a full-time employee with a minimum of 30 hours per week, she will cease to be a qualifying individual. Therefore, if and when Katherine exercises her options, she will not be eligible for KEEP tax relief.

Any gain arising on the exercise of the options will be subject to income tax, USC and PRSI. Katherine must pay this tax liability within 30 days of exercise and complete a form RTSO1. She will also be a chargeable person for the year of exercise and must file a return of income. Her employer will report the exercise on the form RSS1 for the year of exercise and is not required to report this on the form KEEP1.
