Information

Value Added Tax (VAT) paid on certain aids and appliances for use by persons with disabilities may be reclaimed using this form or online using myaccount. Claims must be made in the name of the person who purchased the goods. All relevant supporting documentation attached with the claim form should be in the claimant's name. Evidence must be provided with each claim that the person has a disability and that the items claimed for meets the needs of the person with disability.

Qualifying goods

In order to qualify for this refund goods must be:

 aids and appliances including parts and accessories which are specially constructed or adapted for use by the person with disabilities,

or goods which:

• although not so specially constructed or adapted, are of a kind that might reasonably be treated as such considering the nature of the disability of the person.

And the goods are used by the person with disabilities:

for the purpose of assisting them in the performance of essential daily tasks

or in the exercise of a vocation.

Institutions do not qualify for relief where the aids and appliances are for the benefit of the institution. Eg. Hospitals, schools, and similar institutions.

Services and rental costs are excluded and do not qualify for repayment. VAT paid on the purchase of motor vehicles are also excluded under the VAT refund for aids and appliances.

In general, renovations of existing buildings and new builds do not qualify for a VAT refund under this scheme. However, specific "qualifying goods" which were used in the construction or renovation may qualify if sufficient evidence is provided to demonstrate how they meet the conditions of the legislation. These will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and processing these claims may take longer as a result

Examples of qualifying goods are:

- Necessary domestic aids which have been specially constructed or adapted for persons with disabilities.
- Walk in baths or showers which have been specially constructed or adapted for persons with disabilities.
- Commode chairs or similar toilet aids which have been specially constructed or adapted for persons with disabilities.
- Medical or mobility recliner and / or riser chairs specially constructed for persons with disabilities and purchased from a medical supplier.
- Hoists and lifting / transfer aids including stairlifts.
- Handrails and ramps which have been specially constructed or adapted for persons with disabilities.

The following supporting documentation must be submitted with each claim:

- Evidence of disability from a medical practitioner.
- Invoices or receipts which must be marked 'paid in full' and contain the following:
 - Description of the goods
 - · Cost of goods exclusive of VAT
 - Amount of VAT paid and VAT rate.
 - · Total cost of the goods
 - Supplier details and VAT registered
 - Invoice number and date
 - · Customer details.
- Evidence of any grant or other state financial aid (if applicable).
- Evidence of how the item is meeting the needs of the person with the disability from a medical practitioner,

or

• Evidence from a manufacturer of how the item has been specially constructed or adapted for persons with a disability. Eg. receipt or invoice from a medical supplier.

NB: Items which have not been manufactured or specially constructed for a person with disabilities: Evidence from a medical practitioner on how the item is meeting the person's specific needs must be submitted. This must include evidence of how the item is assisting the person overcome their disability.

Grants / State Aid:

No refund is available on any part of VAT paid on the purchase of the goods where that VAT has been met by grant or state aid or subsidy. Grant or state subsidy approval letters must be submitted to Revenue with the claim where applicable.
