Questions

John Nolan IRHA asked about AES and the functionality to amend a 'released' declaration. He advised that this is causing issues where details relating to the vehicle reg number of sailing ID change at the last minute and the business tries to amend the declaration after the goods have exited the European Union. Carol Ann confirmed that the functionality in AES to amend a released declaration is not yet available but will be delivered in the future. The scenario where an amendment of a declaration after the goods have exited the EU is an exceptional one. She also confirmed that Revenue takes a pragmatic approach to minor inconsistencies in data relating to vehicle and sailing as these are available to us in the PBN and as a result it is not necessary to amend the declarations in these instances.

Tom Thornton raised an issue regarding undischarged Transits – Outbound. He will send details and we will raise with relevant Member States.

Pat Ivory raised an issue that AEO, he had a concerned with the lack of benefits versus the cost of being an AEO. He will send details and we will investigate.

Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM) – Presentation by Declan O'Dalaigh (Revenue)

Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism – was published May 2023. The transitional period will be October 2023 – December 2025. EPA have been appointed as the Competent Authority. There will be a joint EPA / Revenue outreach program to provide businesses with information on CBAM.

Further details see the Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism Presentation.

Questions

Pat Ivory noted that there will be the reporting costs for businesses affected by this new charge. Revenue noted this and said that at present it impacts approximately 220 businesses. The de minimis of €150 kept smaller businesses out of scope which is positive.

Brian Murphy asked what products will be added in the future to the scheme and whether downstream products will be included. Revenue confirmed that currently they are not in scope and at the moment there is no information on future changes or updates.

Klaudia Dudzinska also brought up the situation of resources within EPA who will be managing CBAM non-compliance and other issues. Revenue noted this and will mention as a trade concern at the cross-government group that we attend.

Returned Goods for Relief – Goods can be re-imported into the EU without payment of Customs Duty provided all required conditions are met. Proof of export from the EU showing the exact goods will be required on the importation to Ireland.

Revenue is currently engaging with SIMI and vehicle manufactures to help with the RGR proofs. Further details please see the Returned Goods Relief Presentation.

Questions

John Nolan (IRHA) noted that this is a major cost for Irish businesses because of Brexit. Revenue noted this but as it is specified in the TCA there is nothing that can be done unless the TCA is revised.

If the TCA is revised this issue can be raised with DFAT and DETE.

Customs Reform Package (Ray Ryan)

Customs Reform Package was published on 17th May 2023, the Commission put forward proposals for reform of the EU Customs Union. This reform is largely on foot of increase in trade volumes and e-commerce.

The measures proposed include – to abolish the €150 de minimus threshold in 2028 – a new EU Customs Authority – a new EU Customs Data Hub.

Florance encouraged all organisations to review the proposals and to let us know their views in terms of what works well and where they see issues. Revenue is currently considering the proposals and preparing our position on the various issues, and we will consider any feedback from industry. She also encouraged organisations to engage with their European counterparts in relation to the proposal. Further details please see the Customs Reform Package Presentation.

Questions

Brian Murphy – states that the timelines of changes are not quick enough as the market changes quicker.

Pat Ivory – brought up the removal of the Customs de minimis and asked if it was in line with WTO rules. The de minimis of €150 kept smaller businesses out of scope which is positive. He envisaged that there would be opposition to this from other countries. Revenue noted this.

Concerns /	Question  Pat Ivory – query regarding use of green lanes in Irish ports. He mentioned that he had heard that traffic was diverting to avoid customs formalities in Ireland. We explained that the same formalities will be required for Irish traffic using NI ports. We will send details of what is required for IE traffic using NI ports for import and export.  Brian Murphy brought up an issue regarding documentation required for e-commerce purchases. Some companies have 1000s of purchases and the Irish declarant may not members	have an individual invoice for the purchase but would have data relating to the purchase. Revenue will investigate what documents are required in this instance.
	Tom Thornton brought up the Certification of Training Courses that they provide and how would they go about getting them listed on Revenue Website. He will send query to the chair for investigation.
